Simpson – Appropriations) (Subject to a Rule) Continues sequester level funding through December 15, 2013 to reopen the National Park System, the Smithsonian Institution, the National Gallery of Art, and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. The bill ignores other functions of the National Park Service, including conservation and preservation, and all other agencies under the jurisdiction of the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Subcommittee. This is the same legislation that failed under suspension of the Rules yesterday.

Culberson – Appropriations) (Subject to a Rule) Provides funding for those portions of the Department of Veterans Affairs not deemed essential in delivering Veterans benefits to reopen through December 15, 2013. The bill ignores all other functions, including important military installation projects, under the jurisdiction of the Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations Subcommittee. Further, the House Republicans are providing $6.2 billion less in this bill than was provided in the bipartisan Veterans Appropriations bill that passed the House earlier this year. This is the same legislation that failed under suspension of the Rules yesterday.
